

Accessibility

Drag and drop documents

Shows when the file has been received

Shows which files go to different organizations

Tells you what file type is acceptable

Uses two way authentication

Receive an email when uploaded and when they received

Show all university information

Shows maximum file size

Easy to organize

Search bar

Calendar showing due dates

Login with university information

Design

Interesting color design

Simple website design

Use legible font

Uncomplicated theme

Tabs have the names where we need to upload to

Easy to add documents

Tabs upload different documents

Straightforward layout

Effortless navigation

Accessible layout

Understandable website purpose

Function

Compatible with Google Suites and other forms of email for easy synchronization

Allows user to customize dashboard and sort files based on what is needed

Incorporates safe space for logins (users + passwords)

Auto-sort algorithm that can sort the 'drive' as recommended by a bot.

Built-in reminders function that allows users to enter-in due dates for documents

Push notifications that remind users of due dates, what needs to be assigned and information

Has check list that should be completed and that is automatically crossed off upon completion

Supports .jpg, .jpeg, .tiff, .pdf and .mp4

Supports Android and iOS, supported on both, and updated periodically for bug fixes

App provides templates and examples to be more organized regarding structure within the drive

Compatible with UofSC services

Organizations

Insurance (Health, Property)

Academics

Housing

Extracurriculars

Meal Plan

Financial Aid Offices

Registration

Health

Emergency Contact Information

Orientation

Student Success Center

Admissions